CHATEAUNEUF-du-PAPE

Clos du Mont Olivet

Red and (rare) white Chateauf-neuf-du-Pape from a family-run winery that holds closely to tradition. Son Thierry Sabon is in charge of wine-making at the estate, which is known for wines that are true to terroir and age beautifully. The Mont Olivet Chateauf-neufs are blends of 85% Grenache and 15% Syrah, Mourvedre and Cinsault grapes.

2007 CHATEAUNEUF-du-PAPE Blanc

EXCLUSIVE! One of the best examples of the rare white Chateauf-neuf we have ever tasted! Blend of Clairette, Bourblenc, Rousanne, and Grenache Blanc aged in steel and barrel. Deep, piney aromas, super-rich fruit balanced with mineral undercurrent and strong, fine tannins. Long, lingering finish. Only 600 cases produced. Outstanding!

2006 CHATEAUNEUF-du-PAPE 93pts. W.S. Top 100!

Classic Chateauf-neuf-du-Pape bursting at the seams with sweet cherry and strawberry fruit with striking purity and loads of charm. Cinnamon spice and vibrant berries. Superb!
